

COOKIE POLICY

Version 1.0, The 13th of November 2023

Our website stores cookies on your web browsers. Cookies are small text files that are saved on your web browsers for exchange with our web servers.

The purpose of cookies is to ensure the functioning of the website, to save your settings, to create statistics, and to track your page activities with purposes of direct marketing.

In the sections below, you can see more about the contractors that use your cookies. You can also see more about how we collect your personal data in our Privacy Policy, available on our website.

You can always withdraw the consent you have given us to store cookies in the Cookie Declaration.
